BOURBON COUNTY EQUALS PAST RECORD IN LIBERTY LOAN

So far as Bourbon county is concerned the Fourth Liberty Loan is a thing of the past, and everywhere men and women greeted each other with the query: "It is remarkable how Bourbon county goes over the top when there is a big money campaign on hand." And so it was in this instance. There was never a doubt from the beginning to the end of the day that the county would exceed its quota, and with all the committees and the various delegations putting forth their best efforts the county went "over the top" to the sum of $800,000 or more. The quota asked of the county was $675,400, and from the grand total given above may be inferred the extent of the work that was done all over the county last Saturday. From early dawn until the shades of evening fell, battalions of automobiles invaded every section of the county carrying the committees soliciting for the loan.

In the outset the quota for the county had been placed at $675,400, and that was announced at a meeting held at the court house, when the sum of $256,000 was raised in a short while as a starter for the drive of Saturday. When the day ended a meeting was held at the court house Saturday, when Chairman Buckner Woodford announced that the county had at that time reported a total of $775,000. Belated reports received later in the night made the total close to $800,000, which was verified by the committees yesterday. The county now stands credited with the sum of $800,000 in the Fourth Liberty Loan.

One of the inspiring features of the drive was the patriotic work done in the city and county by the Womans' Loan Committee, under the leadership of Miss Kate Alexander. The members of the committee worked almost unceasingly Saturday, and their headquarters at the corner of Main and Broadway was a scene of activity all through the day. Chairman Buckner Woodford was authority Sunday for the statement that fully fifty per cent. of the amount raised in the county may be credited to the hearty good work done by Miss Alexander and her assistants.

Bourbon county's record in the four Liberty Loan campaigns in the past since the United States entered the war, is a most enviable one. In the first drive the quota was placed at $300,000, and the sum of $381,700 was turned in the treasury of the banks. The quota for the second drive was placed at $321,550, and the sum turned in by the workers totaled $474,000. In the drive just ended the quota of $675,400, was far exceeded, the sum total being as previously stated $800,000. In these four Liberty Loans the combined quotas totalled $1,676,950, which amount was oversubscribed to the extent of $579,450. The county also went over the top in the sale of War Savings Stamps, and rolled up a total of $360,000. In actual gifts to the different war activities the citizens of the city and county have dug down into their clothing and given a combined total amounting to something over $2,683,281.

It is a grand record, one to be proud of the rest of our days. And another thing to be proud of is the fact that there was not a slackener found in any part of the city or the county. Everyone responded nobly, and there was nothing of an objectionable nature reported by the workers at any stage of the campaign.

"Have arrived safely over here. Ship on which I sailed made the trip safely over." This was the text of a card written by Regimental Sergeant Albert Witt, recently of near Paris, to his wife, Mrs. Florence Ellis Witt. He is a member of the 84th Division, 326th Field Artillery, with the American Expeditionary Forces.

Charles Chappell, a member of the United States Navy, who is stationed on the U. S. S. Calhoun, arrived here Saturday for a visit to his mother, Mrs. W. F. Chappell, on South Main street. Young Chappell enlisted in the navy in July, and was sent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Corporal Frank Link, of Bourbon county, has been added to the ranks of Uncle Sam's force of fighting men in Europe. He is a member of Battery B., 326th Field Artillery, of the American Expeditionary Forces. A card has been received by his mother, Mrs. America Link, in this city, mentioning the fact that "I am here and ready for serious business."

Mrs. Jos. M. Rion, of Paris, received a letter yesterday from her grandson, Mr. Rene Clark, at Hampton Roads, Va., in which he stated that he was still in the Base Hospital at that place, but was improving rapidly. Young Clark had an attack of Spanish influenza, which his physicians say he is successfully combatting.

"Here to-day and there to-morrow," can be given as a terse expression in these days as to the whereabouts of the boys in arms. They are transferred from camp to camp with startling rapidity, and then the next thing their friends and relatives are receiving cards saying "The ship on which I sailed has landed safely at a foreign port." This will be the case for many months and will be followed by still others as time goes by.

Harold L. Shropshire, who was transferred from Camp Zachery Taylor some time ago to an Eastern camp, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Shropshire with a card a few days ago, written from an overseas port, announcing his safe arrival there, after an uneventful trip across. Mr. Shropshire is a member of the 325th Regiment, 84th Division, Field Artillery, with the American Expeditionary Forces.

THE NEWS has been favored with a copy of a most interesting letter from Mr. Leo Grosche, in France, to his brothers, Henry, Jos. and Will Grosche, in this city. IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Kiser, of near Paris, have received a card from their son, Mr. Emmett Dickson Kiser, announcing his safe arrival overseas.

Miss Lucile Sprake, formerly of Paris, written from the headquarters of the Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, overseas, to her sister, Mrs. D. M. Plummer, of this city, giving a graphic description of the hospital and its surroundings.

Dr. Victor Corbin, of Butler, Ky., who has been called into the army service, left Saturday for Camp Sevier, at Greenville, South Carolina. He was accompanied by his wife, who was formerly Miss Izma Thomason, of Little Rock, this county.

His safe arrival overseas has been announced to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jason A. Redmon, by Lieut. Jason A. Redmon. Lieut. Redmon is identified with the 84th Division, 325th Field Artillery, of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Another Bourbon county boy, Mr. Frank Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Higgins, of this city, has made the trip safely to a point near the battlefield. Mr. Higgins recently wrote to his parents, stating that he was overseas, and doing very well at that time.

Private J. Ford Fithian, who is stationed at Camp Lee, in Virginia, was at home on a furlough from Friday to Sunday, as a guest of his mother, Mrs. Mayme Fithian, and family. An interesting letter from Private Fithian was one of the features in the last issue of THE NEWS.

Private David Patrick, a former North Middletown boy, is over the seas with an American regiment, according to a card written to and received by Miss Cordie Kenton, of Kisberton. Young Patrick says he is fine and dandy and ready for the dash to Berlin when the right time comes along.

Mrs. Harry Hill, of Paris, is in receipt of a letter from her brother, Private Cleveland Lewis, stating that he was now on the other side of the Atlantic, having arrived safely overseas on the day on which the card was written. Before being inducted into army service Private Lewis was engaged in farming near Paris.

Major Henry Rhodes, Chief of the Selective Service in Kentucky, has cancelled the call for 7,483 drafted men who had been instructed to report for duty between October 7 and 12. The cause for the cancellation of the call is the prevalence of Spanish influenza in the army camps.

Charles Chappell, a member of the United States Navy, who is stationed on the U. S. S. Calhoun, arrived here Saturday for a visit to his mother, Mrs. W. F. Chappell, on South Main street. Young Chappell enlisted in the navy in July, and was sent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

THE RED CROSS TEA ROOMS

The Red Cross Tea Room in the Wilson Building, at Third and Main streets, continue to be well patronized. As a result of their work the managers of the rooms have turned over to Mr. A. B. Hancock $1,200, representing their proceeds in period covering three weeks and four days.

Beginning yesterday the ladies discontinued the policy of soliciting personal contributions for the tables. They, however, will be glad to receive contributions of ham, eggs, butter, milk, cream and all kinds of vegetables.

For this week the rooms will be in charge of Miss Elizabeth Tarr, with the following corps of assistants: Misses Charlina Ball, Anna Eads Peed, Louise Wyatt, Francis Clay, Mrs. Walter Dalby and Mrs. Brinch Meinertz. The menu for to-day is as follows:

Chicken soup; fried chicken; peas in timbales; potatoes; hot biscuit; celery and grape salad molded; banana salad; Woodford pudding, with whipped cream; sandwiches of all kinds; tea; coffee; milk.

very much above the average, and very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Laughlin have received a card from their son, Private W. B. Laughlin, announcing his safe arrival overseas.

Mr. James Doty, of this city, has received a card from his son, Mr. Elmer Doty, who is a member of the United States Marines, to the effect that he had landed safely overseas.

Blair Varden, who is stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor, was at home from Saturday to yesterday, on a furlough to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Varden, and other relatives.

Among the list of children who contributed money toward purchasing a regimental flag for the Lincoln Division, Gen. Hale's command of the United States army, appears those of Windel, James and Carolyn Reading, of Paris.

Mrs. Jesse Turney received a letter from her son, Private Jack Turney, now in England, in which he stated that he was well and feeling fine. Private Turney enclosed a letter from King George, copies of which are distributed to all the American soldiers on their arrival in England.

Major Henry Rhodes, Chief of the Selective Service in Kentucky, has cancelled the call for 7,483 drafted men who had been instructed to report for duty between October 7 and 12. The cause for the cancellation of the call is the prevalence of Spanish influenza in the army camps.

Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, of the Kentuckian-Citizen office, received a letter from his brother, Mr. Sherman Snapp, formerly of Paris, stating that he had just received a promotion to the rank of Corporal. Snapp had been Interview Clerk in the Depot Brigade at Camp Lewis, Washington, before his promotion to the new rank. He is now in the Personnel Office at the camp headquarters at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake Thompson, of Paris, received a short letter Saturday from their son, Mr. Ira D. Thompson, who is at the Annapolis Naval Academy. Young Thompson stated that he had qualified as an expert army rifleman, on the rifle range near Annapolis, and that in a competitive shoot he had scored 256 out of a possible 300. Mr. Thompson added as a postscript, "Mother, I am ready for some shooting fool."

The Chief of Staff, Gen. March, has announced that practically all of the 84th Division (Kentucky, Indiana and Southern Illinois) has now arrived abroad. The 84th Division, commanded by Gen. Harry Hale, was the first occupant of Camp Taylor and was organized there, leaving for Camp Sherman, at Chillicothe, only short time before its departure for France. In the division are large number of Paris and Central Kentucky officers and soldiers, who graduated from the Fort Benjamin Harrison officers' training schools being in the organization.

The first Bourbon county boy to be cited for bravery on the field of battle with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, is Henry F. Dale, a twenty-year-old soldier from this section of the Bluegrass. Young Dale is a brother of Mr. Robert Dale, of near Paris. Previous to his induction into army life, he was employed on the farm of Mr. E. B. Myers, near Jacksonville. He volunteered for army service about three years ago. He has seen active service in Mexico, and went to France with the troops of General Pershing. He was cited for bravery in proceeding to a battery position over roads which were being heavily shelled in order to evacuate the wounded. When his ambulance was wrecked he took charge of another, the driver of which had been killed, and continued in action. On another occasion his ambulance was blown to pieces by a shell, but he escaped un-hurt and proceeded to other duties.

WAR TROPHY TRAIN COMING ON FIRST NUMBER IS NEW DRAFT, OCTOBER 7.

The war Trophy Train which the Government is sending out in the interest of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign will be in Paris on Friday, October 4. The train will stop here about three hours, or long enough, at least, to afford everyone who cares to do so, to take a peep at the trophies which are carried on board.

The War Trophy Train is made up of seven cars loaded with every form of death-dealing devices which the Germans used in their war of frightfulness. The entire exhibition comprises materials of war captured at various times and places from the retreating German army by the Allies. Two are flat cars loaded with captured cannon and a captured German tank, probably the first opportunity the people of this section will have of seeing one of these death-dealing steel-clad monsters which are at present playing so important a part in the war.

The other cars are filled with shells, gas masks, torpedoes, liquid fire ejectors, hand grenades, German helmets, and in fact, every form of war appliance which can be carried. Several noted speakers will accompany the train, also war experts who will take pleasure in explaining the various devices. A band will also accompany the train, and it is hoped that a large crowd will take advantage of the opportunity to see this elaborate and educational as well as highly interesting display.

The time of arrival of the train and its departure will be given in later issues of THE NEWS. The train will be on one of the side tracks at the Tenth street passenger station of the Louisville & Nashville, where it will be of easy access to all comers.

The train will be accompanied by Mr. Ralph Stickley and a special detail of United States soldiers, Mr. Stickley being in active charge of the whole. A parade will be formed in front of the court house at 7:30 a. m. in the following order: "Old Glory," Liberty Drum Corps; twenty-five men accompanying the train; local chairmen; local salesmen; twenty local guards, and others. The parade will move through Main street to the Tenth street passenger station of the Louisville & Nashville, where it will disband. The Trophy Train will be placed at the station at 8:00 a. m. sharp, and will remain until 10:00 a. m. for inspection of the public.

LETTERS FROM BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Corp. Jos. G. Mitchell, now in France, writes an interesting letter to THE NEWS from the army camp where he is stationed. Recent photographs sent to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Mitchell, in Paris, show Joe to have gained considerably in weight and physical appearance during his residence abroad. The letter follows:

"St. Nazaire, France,
"August 26, 1918.

"Dear NEWS:
"Well, what is going on in dear 'old Paris'? Sure wish I was there. Suppose most of the boys have either joined the army or navy by now. You can say what you please about 'Glorious France,' but give me 'Old Ky.' at the time.

"This is a seaport city, and about the size of Lexington, and a very nice place, some very good looking girls, but you cannot understand their language, so you are very much 'out of luck.' There is very little water used for drinking, wine altogether. Every Frenchman you see has a quart bottle with him and plenty of bouteilles. I have been in this camp since July 1st, and like it fine, and never felt better in my life. I now weigh 155 pounds.

"I am doing the same work that Mr. Geo. Wilder did when I left. You see some of us have to stay back of the lines to furnish supplies, and believe me, we are putting them up there.

"Of course you get more war news than we do, in hearing both sides, and we only hear what we are doing, but seems as if we are right after them, and hope we can keep it up.

"I know we never had a better President. He has been in trouble ever since he came into office, and is doing doing all he can for the boys. And also the Red Cross and people at home are doing their part. Well, when we boarded ship, I asked one of the sailors if there were any boys on there from Kentucky. He said yes, Jessie James, (that is his name now), and to wait there and he would get him, so in a few minutes here he came with 'Buddy,' and say, man, I sure was glad to see him. He had just gotten back from home, and told me all the news. We sure had fine time coming across. They'd target practice, and he has the record of being the best gunner, so you see Kentuck boys make good any place. Am awfully glad he came out all right when the Covington was sunk, but give him an empty cigarette box he would come to shore dry as a bone.

"John Collier, from Muir, and myself are the only boys here that came across together, the rest are scattered all over France.

"I sure would like to have seen old Brooks Woodford when he landed, you know how he can cuss anyway, and when he tried to talk to the French. I want to try and find him if I can.

"Papa sends me the clippings from THE NEWS, and I sure enjoy them. Tell all the fellows hello, and hope we will soon be home, for we are going right after the Boches. Send some of your papers or any kind of reading matter, for it is pretty scarce here."

"Hoping you are well, I close for this time.

"Yours truly,
CORP. J. G. MITCHELL,
Co. B., 67th Engineers, A. P. O.
701, A. E. F."

James L. Parker, former Paris boy, son of Mrs. George L. Parker, of this city, writes from "No Man's Land," in Europe, to his friend, Mr. R. S. Porter, of Paris, in a letter very characteristic of the young man. The letter, in part, is as follows:

"No Man's Land, 1918.
"Mr. R. S. Porter, Paris, Ky.

"Dear Sir:—This will let you know that I am helping to drive the Germans back to where they came from and where they ought to be. I had a German helmet which I intended to send you, but on account of advancing so fast, left it somewhere. It was very heavy and not easy to carry advancing at our rate. I will get another one to send you soon. I may get one any time. I also have a 3-inch leather German belt. On the big buckle is, 'Gott Mit Uns,' and the crown set in the middle of it. You know they think their crazy Kaiser is 'Gott.' If Gott is not with them he had better be now.

"These Germans are treacherous. In one big woods where they retreated, one big German held up his hands and yelled, 'Kamerad,' and at the same time he was working a machine gun for all he was worth with his feet. He will never shoot again.

"Tell all the boys they had better hurry if they want to help capture William and his relatives and to see Europe at the same time.

"Look for the helmet any time.

"Yours truly,
JAMES L. PARKER,
Co. B., 103 F. S. B., A. P. O. 744,
A. E. F."

The Statements of Paris Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Paris people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says compels respect.

The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.

Here's a Paris man's statement.

And it's for Paris people's benefit. Such evidence is convincing.

That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. W. Larkin, farmer, 431 High Street, says: "I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, because I have at times had quite a bit of trouble with my back. Often, I had a dreadful ache across my kidneys and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills at these times has never failed to cure me of an attack."

Mr. Larkin is only one of many Paris people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Larkin had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame, Remember the Name."

Field Marshal Haig is not given to boasting, and when he says that the enemy's effort is spent his words will carry weight.

A SPLENDID SELECTION

The selection of Hon. Thos. S. Rhea to be campaign manager this fall was a real inspiration. He has had his preference, heretofore, as all Democrats have the right, but he is above all a Democrat, who knows no law but that laid down by the constituted authorities and yields complete allegiance to its nominees. His capacity for organization has been fully and splendidly demonstrated in former campaigns and his reputation will be more than ever maintained now. His heart and soul are centered on the election of Governor Stanley and the Congressional nominees and he is perfecting an organization that will acknowledge no such word as fail. He and his assistants are nicely fixed in pleasant rooms on the 5th floor of the Seelbach Hotel, in Louisville, where all interested in sustaining the President are asked to call when in that city, on the assurance of a hearty welcome.

CAN NOW EAT AND SLEEP IN COMFORT.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am to-day entirely well."

The Enemy Is Watching

By NEWTON D. BAKER, Secretary of War

The supreme moments of our struggle with Germany have now come.

We have carried our first armies across three thousand miles of ocean and joined the issue of battle with the military power of a nation that has been for forty years preparing its plans and its weapons for its present attempt to dominate the world. We have had to put forth an immense effort and spend a fabulous sum in order to make, in so short a time, an adequate beginning for our gigantic task.

But it is only our beginning. We must follow it with greater energy and support it with increasing power. Men, munitions, ships and supplies must go to Europe in a larger and larger stream. We must redouble our blows and add constantly to the strength of those blows, if our initial effort is not to be wasted.

This Means That Our Fourth Liberty Loan Must Be Larger Than Its Predecessors, More Enthusiastically Supported and More Quickly Than Ever Subscribed

The enemy is watching anxiously for the first sign that we are faltering.

Our Government Loans should go "over the top" as eagerly as our soldiers do, in order to carry with them the terror of furious attack. Our dollars must rain upon the enemy as overwhelmingly as our hail of bullets or our storm of shells.

We are fighting for the liberty of the world, for the triumph of our ideals of democracy and self-government over the last great advocate of force upholding injustice. We are buying with our Liberty Loans the security and joy of our people for generations to come. No price could be too high to pay for such a victory—no cost too great for such a purchase.

Mrs. Louis Rogers has been appointed War Mother for Bourbon county.

The Lake Division has secured only 43% of its quota for the Nurses' Reserve. Why should our young women (19 to 35 years) claim exemption?

"War makes its demands upon the woman power of America as well as upon her man power, and all who can do so, no matter what the sacrifice, should serve the interest of America's part in the war."

With the Clubs.

The Paris Literary Club will on Oct. 2 substitute for its program an all-day sewing for the Red Cross.

Women in War Work.

Secretary McAdoo has designated October 5 as Women in War Work Day.

"Millions of women in the United States are engaged in war work. Seven hundred thousand serve as active workers in the organization of the National Woman's Liberty Loan committees. Seventy thousand women are employed on the railroads. Hundreds of thousands of women are laboring in the munition factories. Other hundreds of thousands serve in clerical work directly related to the war. As many more are engaged in the Red Cross and other activities for the amelioration of war conditions.

"The women of America are doing their share in the winning of the war, both by actual work and by the tremendous force of their moral influence. It is fitting that their service should be memorialized, and Saturday, October 5, has been designated for observation in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign as Women in War Work Day.

"W. G. McADOO."

The C. W. B. M. will meet in the parlors of the Christian church next Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. All the members are urged to be present.

"BOOTLEGGER" IS CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS ON.

When John Calloway, colored, alighted from the 9:45 Interurban car from Lexington yesterday morning something in his appearance and actions aroused the suspicions of Patrolman George W. Judy. There was a suspicious bulge at one portion of John's clothing that didn't look just right to the officer. Questioning John he learned that he had two half-pints of whisky on his person, but searching John the officer found the number had in some mysterious process of evolution, increased to fourteen.

Thereupon John and the booze were both confiscated and escorted to the County Court room, where John was given a hearing before County Judge George Batterton. The evidence was irrefutable and incontrovertible, so Judge Batterton decided that ten days in jail and a fine of $50 would be sufficient to set John to reflecting on the error of his ways. He was taken to the jail to serve his sentence.

WORST KIND OF A SLACKER.

The man who converts his War Savings Stamps into cash when he can afford to carry them during the five-year period is the worst kind of slacker. He should be in Germany fighting the Kaiser. Postoffice statistics are showing that it is not the widows who have sons in France or persons who have suffered illness or financial misfortunes who are cashing in their War Savings Stamps, but men who purchased War Savings Stamps merely for show or to gain patriotic publicity. Such men think they can secretly sneak around to the postoffice, get the money which they have invested in stamps and use it for some other purpose or pleasure without the public's knowing about it. In reality such a person is worse than an open enemy. He is willing to stab Uncle Sam in the back in the dark, while he supports him openly in the light. It has been suggested that post offices keep a record of all persons cashing in their War Savings Certificates, that the public may know who are and who are not true American citizens.

"Notice to Wholesale Grocers: Kindly notice that wholesale grocers must not take up canning certificates. This is against the rule of the Food Administration. The Sugar Division will not honor these certificates if sent in for redemption. It is the place of the retailer to forward these certificates to the Louisville office for a replacement certificate. Note the difference; a replacement certificate is negotiable with the wholesaler; a canning certificate is not."

The Kaiser, shuddering at the idea of violation of the "sacred soil" of Germany, had no consideration for the sacred soils of Belgium and France.

German General Staff has warned the Chancellor that the Reichstag mustn't talk about present military events. Brest-Litovsk is still a much safer topic.

I was all over all at a weakly, I had given up hope of ever getting well; such a cough and rattling, and could not eat anything. Now since taking Peruna I weigh one hundred and thirty-five pounds. All my friends say I would never get well, was just a shadow. I have surely recommended your Peruna to many of my friends, and they are using it. I am so thankful for what it has done for me." STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a pure vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like.

At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MASS MEETING TO ARRANGE COLUMBUS DAY OBSERVANCE

Mayor E. B. January has received the following communication from New York from Hon. Douglas L. Dunbar, Secretary for the Committee on National Tribute to Italy:

SIR.—Aside from the sympathetic relations which exist between Italy and America as faithful allies in the great struggle against the brutal Teuton domination, our people have a special interest in cultivating friendship with "The Crowned Republic," as Italy has been called. Our large Italian population can be impressed by American ideas through our generous appreciation of the great part their country is taking in the war. We are fighting with Italy upon her soil, but we owe it also to Italy to give her at this critical moment, when German intrigue is still at work, both there and here, the valuable support of our admiration and good will.

In view of this fact, the joint Committee of the Italy America Society and of the Italian War Relief Fund of America are hoping that the 12th of October (Columbus Day) will be made the occasion of a nationwide tribute to Italy.

We venture to suggest to your Honor the immediate formation of a representative local committee of leading citizens, to arrange a mass meeting and other ceremonies. Obviously, it would be well to invite the co-operation of Italian citizens.

RESPECTFULLY,
DOUGLAS L. DUNBAR,
Secretary for the Committee.

Acting on the request of Mr. Dunbar, Mayor January yesterday announced the appointment of the following committee to arrange a mass meeting to be held in Paris on October 12:

Messrs. A. B. Hancock, N. F. Brent, Buckner Woodford, S. E. Bedford, John T. Collins, John Willie Jones, Sanford Allen, W. D. McIntyre, Jas. H. Thompson, V. W. Ferguson, Lee Stephenson, Thos. Henry Clay, Jr., J. J. Williams, John F. Davis.

Messrs. A. Adami, D. Santi and Thos. Longo, well known and respected Paris business men, of Italian birth, were named as honorary members of the committee by Judge January.

BRONCHIAL TROUBLE.

Mrs. A. E. Sidenberger, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappears."

(adv-act)

The Kaiser refers to the "repulsive methods of combat" of the allies. The methods that drove the Germans back, likely.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

—Miss Octavia Linville, of Mt. Olivet, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. James R. Stivers.

—Mr. Wm. P. Westfall has returned to Dayton, Ohio, after a visit to his father, Mr. E. Westfall, near Paris.

—Mrs. Thos. Helm Clay, of Eighth street, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Hopkins, and Mr. Hopkins and family, in Covington.

—Mr. Albert Holliday, who has been a guest of his sisters and brother in this city, for the past three weeks, returned Saturday to his home in Chicago.

—Mrs. Fielding Gordon, of Nashville, Tennessee, formerly Miss Ruth Morgan, of Paris, has arrived for a visit to Miss Belle Horton, and other friends in the city and county.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Clay, former residents of Bourbon county, are guests of relatives near Paris. They moved to Lexington some months ago. Mrs. Clay, who has been ill for some time, is gradually being restored to health. Their daughter, Miss Eleanor Clay, is a student at Georgetown College.

—Amid the most ideal surroundings, Mrs. Catesby Woodford was hostess Thursday afternoon at the largest and most beautiful reception given for some time in Bourbon County.

Since the war has been in progress social functions are of rare occurrence, the few parties that have broken the monotony having been knitting or sewing parties where a few friends have spent the time in providing comforts for our soldier boys and sailor laddies, but upon this occasion knitting bags and sewing equipment were left at home, and for several hours Mrs. Woodford's happy guests laid aside their necessary war work to enjoy her gracious hospitality.

"Raceland," the handsome country home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodford, always noted for its beauty and good cheer, never presented a more charming appearance. Its broad acres, magnificent forest trees, park-like meadows and lawn form a setting for one of the most beautiful country residences in central Kentucky. On this lovely autumn afternoon the doors of this palatial home were opened to about two hundred guests who enjoyed and admired to the utmost the spacious rooms and corridors with their rare furnishings and decorations.

Mrs. Woodford and Mrs. E. F. Clay received the guests in the drawing room, where variegated dahlias formed the simple but lovely decorations.

In the den, where punch was served, great clusters of goldenrod were used most effectively, lending their wild beauty to the hunting scene so artistically wrought upon the walls, where were also hung paintings of some of Mr. Woodford's thoroughbreds. Those presiding over the handsomely appointed punch table and looking after the comfort of the guests were: Misses Mary Clay, Sallie Lockhart, Rachel Wiggins, Miss Holloway, Mrs. James Woodford, Mrs. John F. Davis and Mrs. John Yerkes.

Across the hall in the library and dining room, refreshments were served by a group of attractive young ladies from the Red Cross Tea Room. They were Misses Charlina Ball, Frances Clay, Patsy Clark, Elizabeth Tarr and Mrs. Virginia Cook Dalby. The table in the dining room had for its centerpiece a charming arrangement of pink roses and delphinium in a white and gold bowl, while cakes and confections in similar bowls were placed about on lovely mats.

In the library, crimson roses and crimson dahlias were used, giving an added beauty to the rich furnishings.

A salad course was followed by ices moulded as autumn fruits with macaroons and mints.

During the hours of the reception, an orchestra discoursed sweet music in the upper hall, adding greatly to the pleasure of the guests, who will long remember every detail of the gracious hospitality of Mrs. Woodford.

"The Relics of Chateau-Thierry"

After that memorable battle, visitors went to the building back of the lines which served as a hospital. It held the American wounded who had survived that pitiless thirteen hours of beating back the Hun at Chateau-Thierry.

On that line of white stone houses on the south bank of the river, the American machine gunners, after a thirty-hour ride in camions from another part of France, placed their tools of war and held for thirteen hours against the mad rushes of the oncoming Germans to get across the river.

With the same unconquerable boyishness that is laughing its way into the hearts of all civilized Europe, these heroic young soldiers had tacked upon the door of their hospital this sign:

Relics of Chateau-Thierry

Fighting until they are shot down, protesting as they are carried off the field, laughing while they suffer and giving with their last breath, these are the boys we are buying Liberty Bonds to help.

It seems unfitting that we should remind ourselves that we are only lending, that we are benefiting ourselves with every Bond we buy. The very least that we can do is to lend to the utmost—"Lend the way they fight"—never stopping to count the cost.

Bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan are being sold to help bring to a triumphant finish this crusade against the blackest evil in the world. Every Bond you can buy will help to the full value of every dollar it represents and to the full value of every ounce of patriotism you can put back of it.

Preserve the splendid Relics of Chateau-Thierry. They're too precious to be lost to the world through German frightfulness.

The flat owned by Miss Nancy Louise Best was sold Saturday afternoon at public sale to Mr. David Cassidy for $3,645. It is a good investment and at present is occupied by the following: Mr. T. E. CHECK FOR SEWER WORK

City Treasurer W. W. Mitchell has become custodian of a check for the sum of $20,080.89, drawn by the Harris Trust & Savings Bank, of Chicago. This institution was the successful bidder for the $20,000 sewer bonds recently sold by the city of Paris. The check represents the sum total for the bonds plus interest and premiums.

Contractor Sant has the construction work well under way, and is confident of completing it before the advent of cold weather.

MATRIMONIAL.

Here's a "guess-who?" for the guessers of Paris:

A well-known and prominent young Paris man, now a Lieutenant in the army service, and stationed in a Southern camp, will shortly marry an equally well-known and prominent Paris girl. After the marriage, as the Lieutenant is destined for overseas duty, the better-half will return to Paris to reside.

CURTIS—FLORENCE

Miss Mary Curtis and Mr. James M. Florence, both of the county, were granted a marriage license Friday afternoon by County Clerk Pearce Paton. They were married shortly afterward in the Clerk's office by Rev. Geo. R. Combs, pastor of the Paris Methodist church.

COOK—DOW

Cards were received here by friends and relatives of the groom announcing the marriage in Sioux City, Ia., on last Thursday of Mr. Rion Dow, formerly of Paris, and Mrs. Margaret Cook, of Sioux City.

The groom is a son of Mr. Robert P. Dow, Sr., of Paris, and for several years has been in business in Ft. Dodge, Iowa. The bride is handsome and highly accomplished young woman, who, with her parents, moved from Ft. Dodge to Sioux City some time ago to reside. This is the second matrimonial venture for both the groom and bride, Mr. Dow's first wife being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Marsh, of Paris.

The announcement of the marriage was made to friends and relatives here in the shape of cards worded as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. Charles Avery Bond announce the marriage of their niece, Margaret Browne Cook, to Mr. Rion Dow, on Thursday, the twenty-sixth of September, nineteen hundred and eighteen, Sioux City, Iowa."

In later days he was engaged in the same work at Bowling Green and other towns in Kentucky. He had been under the care of a specialist for some time, having sustained a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Higgins is survived by his father, Mr. Timothy Higgins, two sisters, Mrs. Roger Lavin and Mrs. Malachi Flanagan, and one brother, Mr. William Higgins, all of Paris.

ROBERT HARRON	ROSEMARY THEBY
GEORGE SIEGMANN	GLORIA HOPE

Like "The Birth of a Nation" and "Hearts of the World," "The Great Love" is the result of long and untiring effort on D. W. Griffith's part.

He first spent eighteen months on the battlefields of France to photograph the stupendous scenes of the Great Conflict. Then he came back to his California studio and wove these undying scenes into the greatest story of woman's part in the fight—a story that proves that, though women are not using cannon and machine guns and bayonets, they're fighting just the same.

SOCIETY WOMEN IN PICTURE

In addition to the players mentioned, many celebrated society women of England will be seen in "The Great Love." These include Queen Alexandra, the Princess of Monaca, the Countess of Masserene, Lady John Laverty, the Countess of Drouhda, Lady Diana Manners, daughter of the Duke of the Ruthland, and known as the most famous beauty in England, Miss Elizabeth Asquith, daughter of the former Prime Minister of England, the Hon. Mrs. Montague, Miss Bettina Stuart-Wortley and Miss Violet Keppel. It is safe to say that so notable an array of celebrities never has been presented in any screen offering thus far produced.
